

Dunsmore Business College

J. G. Dunsmore, Pres.

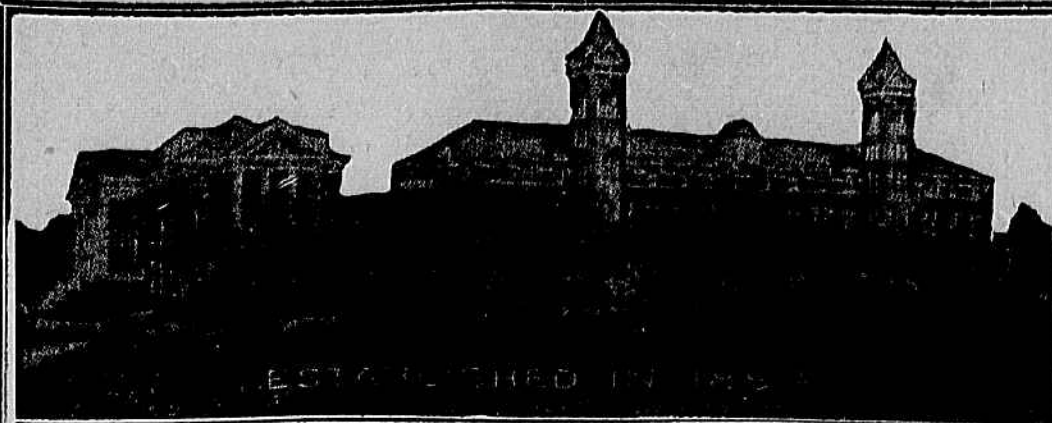

Staunton, Virginia

Thirty-Ninth Session

Has trained scores of young men and young women of this vicinity, many of whom have been your friends and acquaintances. They have been assisted to good positions, and are filling those positions. The success of the school can be measured by the success of its graduates.

We have no patented process by which every young man or young woman, regardless of age, previous education or ability can be turned out a competent stenographer or bookkeeper in a few weeks' time. It can't be done. The training received here is thorough, practical and complete. The equipment is first-class in every particular, the teachers are experienced and competent, the courses of study are modern and practical. Graduates of this school secure and hold desirable positions.

Those who contemplate attending a Business School are invited to carefully investigate our methods and results. In the end the student saves time and money by attending a school that promises only what it can do and does all it promises.

THE BLACKSTONE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

The aim of the school is clearly set forth by its MOTTO: "Thorough instruction under positively Christian influences" at the lowest possible cost.

The School was established by the Methodist Church, not to make money, but to furnish a place where girls can be given thorough training in body, mind and heart at a moderate cost. The object has been so fully carried out that as a RESULT: It is to-day, with its faculty of 32, its boarding patronage of 328, and its building and grounds worth $140,000.
